IPT CORE COURSE

WHAT TO EXPECT

The programme of this training course comprises theoretical inputs and practical exercises tailored to the realities in the field. All modules enhance interpersonal skills, highlight the importance of active involvement in the host society, and promote a reflective and critical approach. Junior professionals benefit particularly as they get the opportunity to reflect on their own mission readiness and motivation. As part of the course, participants will:

- ✓ learn how to handle complex risk situations: four-wheel drive training, mine awareness, and field orientation;
- ✓ understand the different types of third party intervention and gain tools necessary for third party interventions;
- ✓ gain an insight in key international human rights laws and humanitarian law standards;
- ✓ get an overview of different actors in the field and how to cooperate with them.

The course is suited for

- ✓ Individuals who want to prepare for deployment in post-conflict areas and fragile situations
- ✓ Professionals working in crisis management who want to conceptualise their skills and knowledge
- ✓ Individuals who want to serve as multipliers in their own countries and communities, passing on the knowledge and skills obtained in the course

COURSE FEES: 1.690€ include tuition fees, course materials, coffee breaks, full-board accommodation, joint transport to and from the airport, and a social event.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: 22 January 2016 | 30 July 2016
