

Joan GÓMEZ is co-director of the Institute of Development Organizations Gestalt Barcelona (DO Barcelona) and co-director of the Gestalt Barcelona Institute.

DO Barcelona offers consulting and training to the public as well as private sector. The Gestalt Barcelona Institute offers therapy as well as training in Gestalt therapy. He works as external process consultant for organizations and companies, specializing in teambuilding and designing and facilitating strategic as well as participatory processes. He is also coach and supervisor to professionals in the performance of their responsibilities and the development of their careers.

He is trained in Gestalt / systemic approach to the development of organizations and systems by the Gestalt Institute TWO (Organizational Development and Systems) and in Systems Development and Organization in the specialized program in multicultural environments IOSD (International Organisation Systems Development), in the Gestalt OSD Center Organisation and Systems for Development of Cleveland.

He is furthermore trained of group process analysis and in Gestalt in E.T.G.B. (Gestalt Workshop School of Barcelona).