

Master Class on Conflict Transformation with Wilfried Graf and Gudrun Kramer

During this master class, participants get acquainted with the underlying philosophical approaches, theoretical concepts and practical tools for facilitating conflict transformation in complex constellations. Participants will develop skills, and practice a facilitator's attitude to apply their knowledge in different settings (eg. as inside mediators, as third party, or when working with potential veto groups) and at different societal levels.

Scheduled Course

Master Class on Conflict Transformation: 10 – 20 November 2019

Application Deadline (Scholarships): 26 July 2019

Applications of qualified, self-financed candidates can be considered after this deadline.

Participants will:

- learn the difference between concepts, such as conflict management, conflict resolution, conflict transformation, dialogue, mediation, negotiation, facilitation;
- apply tools for complex conflict analysis (actors mapping, structural power analysis, analysis of cultural meanings, needs analysis);
- develop key competencies how to promote, support and guide reflective “deep dialogue” processes;
- develop strategies how to deal with dynamics of exclusion and stigmatisation, as well as power asymmetries in conflict constellations.

COURSE FEES: € 1,658.-

This includes tuition fee, course materials, shuttle to and from the airport, as well as full-board accommodation, coffee breaks, and a social event.

Further information & registration: <https://www.aspr.peacecastle.eu/>

Please note that we are located in a historic castle and thus are only limited accessible by wheelchair. We are committed to providing access to all who visit, work and study with us and welcome enquiries to seek both, individual and collective short- and long-term resolutions!

